Antecedents

Founded in 1976, IST Sports Corporation first operated as an original equipment manufacturer producing basic gear such as masks, fins and snorkels for a number of international brands.

The F12 Sea Diver fin has been around for a very long while and its American distributor has sold it online ever since the turn of the new millennium. Over many years, it has proved its worth as a "resort fin" for casual and organised snorkel tourism.

Although it is now retailed in solid black only, the fin has been available in other solid colours in the past, including yellow (left), light blue, dark blue, red and orange. One two-tone version featured an orange foot pocket and a black blade (below).
